

Programme 2014

MONDAY 13th JANUARY – 7.30pm in the village hall annex .-
Presentation by Jo Caruth, Suffolk CCArchaeological Service.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXCAVATIONS AT HARTISMERE HIGH SCHOOL, Eye –
Jo will be giving an illustrated talk describing the results of excavations at a previously unknown early Anglo Saxon settlement, which includes evidence for Anglo Saxon buildings, trade and craft, as well as earlier prehistoric burials and settlements.

MONDAY 10th MARCH_ 7.30pm in the village hall annex.

1914 – THE YEAR GREAT BARTON CHANGED - presented by Brian Way and Roger Curtis, based on material from our archives.
A look at events during this time, from the history of Great Barton Hall and its burning down in 1914, to the impact on the village and its people as men went off to war.

MONDAY 12th MAY 7.30pm in village hall annex- A presentation by Wendy Barnes.

LITTLE HALL LAVENHAM – from prosperity to preservation “lives have been lived in the Hall since the mid 14th Century. Wendy’s talk will focus on the tales and echoes they have left behind”

TUESDAY, 30th June

VISIT TO THE NEWLY REFURBISHED MILDENHALL MUSEUM where we will see the exciting new exhibit of the Saxon Warrior and Horse, as well as other new and enlarged displays.

MONDAY 8th SEPTEMBER _- 7.30pm in village hall annex

SIX INTO ONE WILL GO- Tudor costume for the wives of Henry V111 .
A visual presentation by Frances Saltmarsh, who will give us a potted history of each queen, using costume to give an insight into court life in Tudor times.

MONDAY 10th NOVEMBER 7.30pm in village hall annex

AGM followed by ... WINTER TALES 1640-1900 A presentation by Dr Pat Murrell
The Thames Frost fair, sports and pastimes during the winter season, with local examples and evidence..

Members and guests welcome, as well as anyone interested in the subjects our speakers are covering and who may also wish to become a member of the Society. Fee payable, refundable on joining.

Tea and biscuits available after the talks.

For further information on the History Society, please contact the secretary, Mrs. M. Marshall
01284, 788070 or email: mitchgbhs@gmail.com